Both the address of the Governor and the reply of the President were loudly cheered. The guests were then conveyed in open carriages under escort to the Entaw House. The streets were througed on the entire route, men and women waving their hand-kerchiefs. National llags were threwn out in all directions, particularly in Baltimore street. Nearly everybody seemed to thave deserted their houses which such the distinguished excursionists. Thousands of persons were within sight of the stand at the Entaw House, which had been erected expressly for the occasion, and beautifully testooned with tlags and adorned with motioes. adorned with motioes. The Reception.

GOVERNOR BRADFORD'S ADDRESS. Ex-Governor Bradford here made a formal speech of welcome to the President, complimenting him for his honest, long, and ardrous service in behalf of the Constitution and the Union, and expressing the hope that he would return to the capital additionally strengthened to partorn the important duties with which he was intrusted

The President replied at length, covering much of the ground of his former speeches. With reference to the welcome, it was preudarly gratifying, coming as it did from the Executive of the State as the representative of the people, and not from those clothed with a little brief arthority as city counting. DEAR SIR. I take great pleasure in awarding to your skill as a physician the grompt, perfect, and complete cure of my daughter, who has been suffering for years with that dangerous malady CATARRII. From the first application of your remedies she began to improve, and, although under your care put a few weeks, is now restored to perfect health.

The Mayor of Nauvy is an intelligent individual. On the occasion of the recent visit of the Empress Bugeuie, with her son, the Mayor asked the Prince Imperial What is your age, my Prince? "I am ton. answered the Prince Imperial Consensus of the Empress Bugeuie, with the reson, the Mayor asked the Prince Imperial What is your age, my Prince?" If an iton. answered the Prince So young, and alse any the son of the Emperor of the French' exclaimed the Mayor, with great emphasis.

It Francis was a wag, and once, when early pear were on the table, he emptice the contents of his sondification over them. "Francis" exclaimed a friend, "what are you about?" "I like them that was, was the answer. He of course had the dish to himself, and, when he had concluded, exclaimed. "You thought it was soulf, did you? Nothing but black perper."

In Valparalso, Indiana, last Snnday, a man named John Weeks was killed by the City Marshal. A daughter of Mr. Weeks had been induced to a house of ill-fame. Her father went to induce her to return home, but was not allowed to accher, and, being under great excitement, made a great disturbance. The officer, supposing him to be one of the roughs who frequent such hones, attempted to arrest him, and on his recitaing, shot him.

An English letter-writer says that Grad Massey in passionately immersed in Spiritualism, and is, indeed, himself a medium. He confides to his friends that every idea in his new book on Shakespeare's sonnets was obtained directly from the shoot of Shakespeare himself. He says he went over the sonnets line by line with the spirit, and had the author's interpretation of each. He did not state this in his toke for for periodice of the public against is.

A punster, or being asked by a musician whether he was not a great lover of harmony, replied: "Yes, but I prefer it when it is abridged, for then it is money; and that, my friend, is the better of it. I have no objection to your notes, but I like those of the Bank of England much better You may make good tunes, but those make infinitely the very best of tunes." "How so? That bank notes are good things, I allow; but pray what tune will they make?" "The best tune in the world—a fortune." we come to a bit of tolerably level ground.

THE RIVER is rising very rapidly, and advices from above show that the rise extends up above situation in othing to predict a full stage of water here. Since our last report the rise stage of water here. Since our last report the rise has been neverty-eight inches here, making the stage of water seven feet ten inches in the canal and five feet seven inches in the landian chute. The weather was clear and warm in the morning, but the clouds gathered, and it turned quite cool, with rain before 5 o'clock. Basiness was more active, and considerable freight was offering for New Orleans, Memphis, and Tennessee River.
